Children's Day Services.

The services at the Elm street Methodist church Sunday for the special benefit of the little children were delightful indeed, not only to the little children but to those of larger growth. The choir furnished some splendid music and the exercises by the children were quite appropriate and exceedingly entertaining. The News would like for Children's Day to come every Sunday, this of course, is not an impossible thing in any dispensation to the ministers.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1891.

WOMAN'S WORLD IN PARAGRAPHS.

"As for Me, Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death."

With the proverbial shrewdness of his race, Solomon chose wisdom as the best gift he could ask for, perfectly well aware — the old Hebrew — that if he only had wisdom he would know enough to obtain everything else in his life that he wanted. It was a long headstart, as much as his true prize that prompted him to make that choice, but since we cannot all have wisdom, then the next most precious gift to man, and which, too, is liberty, the right to do exactly as you please, so long as you do not interfere with anybody else. That is the sole restriction that should be put on human beings. The right to think your own honest thoughts; to proclaim them openly and bravely, fearless of all the world, knowing that the most modest of Mrs. Grundy will crush you under her juggling want for telling the truth; to dress in comfortable and convenient clothing without being hooted; to associate freely with people whom you like, and with no others; to have your name mingled in social spots on your track, no Miss Nancys of either sex to claw you; to write and print the truth as you feel it and know it, without hedging and trimming and trembling; to live daily without a pick of bigots, critics and hypocrites in every other you; to follow no conventionalities of fashion, society or belief, that did not suit you; to wander out alone in the beautiful wilds of freedom; to climb the cliffs and breathe the sweet, strong air of liberty upon the mountain top — to gain such life I would die a thousand deaths!

The other day I was going up Fulton street in Brooklyn in an elevated train. A young lady sat beside me, reading attentively. In cars I always look to see whether girls are reading novels or newspapers, and I accordingly inspected this young lady's book. It was a religious volume, and I am bound to say she seemed profoundly interested. By and by she laid it down, and she said her name was "The One Thing Needful." In her lap beside the book were five packages of chewing gum, and she was manipulating the sixth as fast as her jaws could work. Chewing gum was the one thing needful.

No, we don't want men to take a back seat just because they are men, but we intend women shall have their share of the front seats from now on. It is not the entering on this or that occupation, or even following this or that line of conduct, that is insisted on in behalf of our sex. We would force nobody into any trade or profession, or into any line of work that he or she does not want. It is that we want the liberty to choose our own occupation and to do as they please without being forced either this way or that. Under the system of illiberalism that we have quickly laid off his or her own level.

Lady Florence Dixie tells in a manner that is altogether delicious how she evaded the words "love, honor and obey" in the church marriage ceremony. She says: "For myself I am not bound to obey. I did not pronounce them. I merely substituted er, er, er, in a low voice." Girls, don't forget Lady Florence's er, er, er. Years ago, when a lovely girl of nine was about to be married by the Methodist service, before the ceremony I saw the minister at her request and asked him to omit from the pledge the word "obey." It was surprisingly refreshing to me to hear this good Methodist clergyman answer: "Oh, I never put that word in. No preacher that has any sense ever does any more."

—Ella Archard Conner.

The Terrible Cough

In the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, rising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms and is sold under a positive guarantee by G. W. Short, Cloverport, Ky., and Witt & Meador, Hardinsburg, Ky.

LOUISVILLE KY.

Amphitheatre Auditorium. Duff Opera Company Engagement, May 20-23.

With Marie Tempest.

The Chicago and Louisville Auditorium seem to go hand in hand in presenting great attractions to the amusement-loving public. Whatever production is given at the great show house in Chicago, the same is presented in Louisville.

Beginning Wednesday May 21st, the J. C. Duff Opera Company will fill an engagement of four nights and a matinee at the Auditorium, in a repertoire of popular operas that will surely please every one. They are just heavy enough to please those who clamor for something big and again, they are light enough to please the popular fancy. The grand revival by the Duff Company last Spring, of a repertoire of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, will be remembered as the most perfect presentation of the operas this season Manager Duff gives something more presentations; and the operas to be presented are Carmen; Bohemian Girl; Dorothy and the Red Hussar. The two last are novelties, and the Red Hussar will be seen in Louisville for the first time.

The Company opened an engagement in Chicago, last Monday, in Carmen. The Tribune said of the performance: "Carmen" was given at the Auditorium last evening, which for general excellence, splendor of staging, richness of costuming, and perfection of ensemble, has never been surpassed, if equaled in this city. More famous artists may have assumed the leading roles, greater vocalists sung the title part, but no production has ever been given in Chicago in which every character was in competent hands, in which chorus and orchestral portions were more evenly and confidently sung, in which the mounting was characterized by such magnificence, such perfection and accuracy of detail. No operatic production at the Auditorium, has brought forward such master pieces of stage setting, as were shown in the first and third acts of 'Carmen' last night." The singing contingent is a very large one and headed by Miss Marie Tempest as the prima donna.

Up to last evening Miss Tempest was a complete stranger, and had to make friends solely by her talents. While she did, and long before the first curtain fell, there were many hands in the audience ready to applaud her. She is a little slender vivacious woman, with the type of face that improves on acquaintance, although it is handsome enough to commence with, and a clear ringing, lark-like soprano that was at times thrilling. She has evidently received careful and sensible training, which adds a smooth and pleasing finish to her tones. One might say, that after opening her eyes to the world, she is a deeper meaning, a more sympathetic ring to her singing, but still, that is a question. As it is one can say, that she is lovely, and a lovely little artist.

Sale of seats for the above engagement will be placed on sale at Baldwin's, 234th Avenue, Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Coming as this engagement does, while the city is filled with strangers, the engagement is sure to be a big one.

These desiring seats for the above engagement should address James J. Camp, Business Manager, P. O. Box 63, Louisville. Prices $30, 75 and $1.00 according to location. Reduced rates on all lines of transportation.

Do Not Suffer Any Longer.

Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct. For sale by G. W. Short, Cloverport, Ky., and Witt & Meador, Hardinsburg, Ky.

NOTES

There is only one sudden death among women to every eight among men.

Farm lands in the United States, taking the country as a whole, occupy only 280 acres in every 1,000.

This country has one million miles of telegraph wires, enough to reach forty times around the globe.

Nine hundred and fifty submarine telegraph cables are now in operation, most of them in Europe; their total length is over 80,000 miles.

England has more men workers than any other country, in proportion to population; twelve per cent, of the industrial classes are women.

There are about 105 women over 100 years; one quarter of the population of the world die before the age of seventeen years; only one in a thousand lives to be 100 years old, and only six in a thousand reach seventy-five.

Emperor William is said to be fond of going about disguised at night to certain liquor shops and music halls where his soldiers and sailors are to be found, in order to pick up criticisms of his army and navy.

Railway constructors agree now that the speed limit of the steam locomotive has been about reached.

There is no country like France for starting journals. During 1890 no less than 950 new newspapers were brought out, of which not one remains in life.

Main's hay crop is 1,500,000 tons, and worth at least $15,000,000. The ice crop brings in, perhaps, as much more, and summer visitor crop over $5,000,000.

The Manchester Ship Canal Co., has expended over $45,000,000. More money is wanted at once, and it is stated that the City Council of Manchester will advance the $10,000,000 needed to complete the canal.
